From the Wilderness to the Miraculous will pave the way for many who have never had the courage to step out of the darkness of the condemnation and shame of their past. It is a great honor to recommend this riveting book to those desiring to know the love of our Father God or needing a timely word of encouragement to help them continue on their own wilderness journey.

Dr. Bruce Allen, Still Waters International Ministries

This anointed book wields power, is discerning and insightful, challenging and exciting, inspirational and stirring, lifting a person straight into the arms of a Father truly knows how to love His children! One simply cannot read this book and remain the same!

Pr. Larry (Still-Free) Whiston Sr. Off-Broadway Family Outreach, New Mexico

Therese's wilderness journey and testimony of finding the Father's love have been a great source of life to me. From the Wilderness to the Miraculous is a personal journey that reminds us to trust in God and His promises in spite of life's forever changing circumstances.

Julie Greenfield, Abundant Life Fellowship, Butte, MT

From the Wilderness to the Miraculous is a well-written, easy-to-read book that will touch many lives, as Therese's other books have already done.

Dr. Flo Ellers, Global Glory Ministries

Through From the Wilderness to the Miraculous, Therese reminds us that even when our lives feel like a stagnant pool of pond scum, God is unfolding a wondrous destiny ahead. As you enter the pages of Therese's life, may you discover that you are not forgotten, but valued and deeply loved by the Father.

Pastor Faye Higbee, Raven Ministries

The revelation shared in From the Wilderness to the Miraculous was life changing! Through her heartfelt words, Therese challenges readers to a greater understanding of personal trials and gently reminds each one to press forward under the Almighty's hand of love. Surely, From the Wilderness to the Miraculous will inspire and bring hope to every reader!

Jacqueline Johnson, MSW, Counselor

Therese shows us firsthand how God can use the dry seasons of devastation and the greatest of trials to bring understanding of our true identity and, thereby, to our divine destiny! Therese is a real person and has a pastor's heart as she teaches us through From the Wilderness to the Miraculous. She is a brave soul on a great journey with our King. I love her for it.

Gena Bradford, Singer, Songwriter and Author

From the Wilderness to the Miraculous will encourage those walking through a wilderness season to move through it knowing that it is a season of purification where the old is passing away to bring forth God's plan that awaits.

Charity Bagatsing
Publishing Diva & Editor-in-Chief
Northwest Woman Magazine

Therese's walk through the wilderness into a miraculous transformation engages the reader to experience HOPE! This powerful book enables readers to receive physical, spiritual and emotional healing as they "debrief" and download what God speaks to their hearts while reflecting on their personal journey at the end of each chapter.

Jan Foland, Founder, Off-Broadway Family Outreach

From the Wilderness to the Miraculous offered God's hope to me when I was battling through a severe health trial of my own. My hungry heart devoured each chapter as I experienced God's comfort and encouragement through Therese's experiences. Praise God for this book, as it will breathe hope into the lives of many and show them the compassion of the Father's heart toward each one of us.

Kelly Ruffcorn, Spokane, WA

I believe God will use From the Wilderness to the Miraculous to touch lives in an even more wonderful way than her previous books already have. This book demonstrates God's love for us and testifies to His faithfulness in turning our lives around from whatever despair we may be suffering to the wonderful gift Jesus offers us.

Lorna Bradley, Drogheda, Ireland

From the Wilderness to the Miraculous will introduce you to a wonderful wilderness buddy and will realize that you're no longer alone! Therese's courage and faith are contagious and will empower you to continue to walk in faith when nothing makes sense. This book is God breathed and timely for this season in the body of Christ.

Reverend Becky Weber, Fragrance Ministries

Therese Marszalek is a gracious, kind woman but she is also a warrior who has been tried, tested and victorious. From the Wilderness to the Miraculous brings great encouragement and I pray it provokes the warrior in you NOT to quit, but to imagine yourself as one that is available and accomplishing much for the Kingdom of God.

Pastor Donna Sanders, Spokane Faith Center

From the Wilderness to the Miraculous contains powerful words from a powerful woman of God. From the Wilderness to the Miraculous reveals the depth of Therese's devotion to God and His perfect timing. I believe everyone who reads this book will learn as they walk with Therese through her personal wilderness experience.

Robert L. "Stormy" Storment, Post Falls, Idaho

As I read From the Wilderness to the Miraculous, my eyes filled with tears, knowing that Therese's journey to the Father's love and the transparency of her heart would speak with healing and amplify God's love and faithfulness to every reader. To quote Therese, "The Father's love will find you in the wilderness! He is a God of restoration and will redeem the years the enemy has stolen.

Rosalie Willis Storment, Founder of A Company of Women International

From the Wilderness to the Miraculous, serves as both a journey mate through pain and confusion, and a beacon toward refuge and hope. Therese's refreshing transparency and tested wisdom assures us that the night is, indeed, followed by the dawn. Struggle and victory, together, emboss the horizon of faith.

Judy Mandeville - Sacred dance instructor, writer and speaker

From the Wilderness to the Miraculous will leave readers pondering its rich teaching long after they finish using it as a Bible Study guide, devotional, or most engaging Christian 'Self-Help' for pilgrims suffering from low self-worth in the wilderness. I recommend it warmly!

Josiane Lynch MA (Hons), Dip. Ed. - Brisbane, Australia.

Therese Marszalek takes readers on a trip to see the heart of God, to learn to hear His voice, to walk in His pathways and to sit in His presence. I loved Therese's transparency and the reality of her story! This book, a lesson in love and obedience, will enable you to see God's presence in every day life, and reminds us that He never leaves us or forsakes us. You will indeed Him as our Father God.

Ruth Roberts, Spokane Christian Center, minister, retired nurse, spiritual Mom and mentor

From the Wilderness to the Miraculous is Therese's best work yet. Not only is it a testimony of her faith in Jesus Christ, but also the story of a remarkable season of her life.

Therese bares her soul to the reader, unashamed and unafraid to give the credit to The Father, who led her and carried her through her wilderness struggle.

Doug Kyser, Bethel Church of the Assemblies of God, Chehalis, WA
